WHO CARES? Summer School Humanitarian Action
WHO CARES? Summer School Humanitarian Action

When? 07 - 12 August 2017
Where? BF 4.46 (Bochumer Fenster)

The Summer School will familiarize students with the fascinating, but demanding field of international humanitarian action and the manifold problems associated with addressing human suffering in crisis zones. The Summer School will provide

- an introduction to the legal, political and organizational framework of humanitarian interventions,
- a simulation exercise to obtain insights in the coordination mechanisms of humanitarian action and the management of humanitarian organizations,
- a workshop where experts of humanitarian organizations tell about their experiences in the interdisciplinary field of humanitarian action.

Preparation Day 16 June 2017

Requirements for participation
The Summer School is open to students from all faculties with a sound knowledge of English, at least two completed semesters of study and an interest in humanitarian action as well as in interdisciplinary exchange with other students.

Students will receive 5 ECTS for their participation. Law students can obtain the „Fremdsprachenschein“ (§ 7 Abs. 1 Nr. 3, Abs. 3 JAG NRW). Medical students can obtain credit for the „Vorklinische Wahlfach“.
